NOTIFICATION

Regarding Exit Policy under FYUGP

All students of B.A. Programme are hereby informed that Dibrugarh University, vide Notification No. DU/DCE-A/COE/2026/889 dated 09-07-2026, has issued guidelines regarding the Exist Policy under the Four-Year Undergraduate Programme (FYUGP).

Students who have successfully completed 3 (three) years of the Four-Year Undergraduate Programme (FYUGP) with a minimum of 120 credits and wish to avail themselves of the Exit Option are advised to submit their application through the Samarth Portal within the period stipulated by the University and to note the following points carefully.

- Applications for Exit must be submitted only through the Samarth Portal (<https://dibru.samarth.edu.in>)
- The Exit application will be approved subject to fulfillment of the prescribed eligibility criteria.
- After successful completion of 3 (three) years and approved of Exit, students may apply for the Degree Certificate through the Dibrugarh University Certificate Portal.
- Students intending to appear in the Betterment Examination must first complete the Betterment Examination before applying for Exit.
- Once a student has exited the programme, they will not eligible to appear the Betterment Examination.
- Students seeking re-entry into the programme at a later stage must inform the College, which will communicate the matter to the University.

Students are instructed to follow the steps given below while applying:

1. Login into the Student Portal using your registered credentials.
2. Open Dashboard.
3. Navigate to Examination → Apply for Exit (as per NEP).
4. If eligible, Click Apply.
5. Select “Yes” to confirm your intention to exit and provide a valid reason (mandatory).
6. Submit the application. A reference number will be generated, and the application status will be displayed as “Applied”.
7. Students may revoke the application only while it remains in “New Application” status. Once the College/University initiates any action on the application, the revoke option will no longer be available.

For any clarification or technical assistance, students may contact the College Office during working hours.
